Pupils response using Acrylic paint & charcoal for abstract artist- Frank Auerbach

a drawing from using the grid

he grid method, I decided to draw 2 boys to use as part of the piece. Both to represent that tragic time, I am really pleased with my drawings, although they are not as exact as the google images. I think I have captured the essence of sadness and solitude of the two boys caught up in the genocides. These drawings will help to set the tone of the finished piece and help the viewer relate to the story.

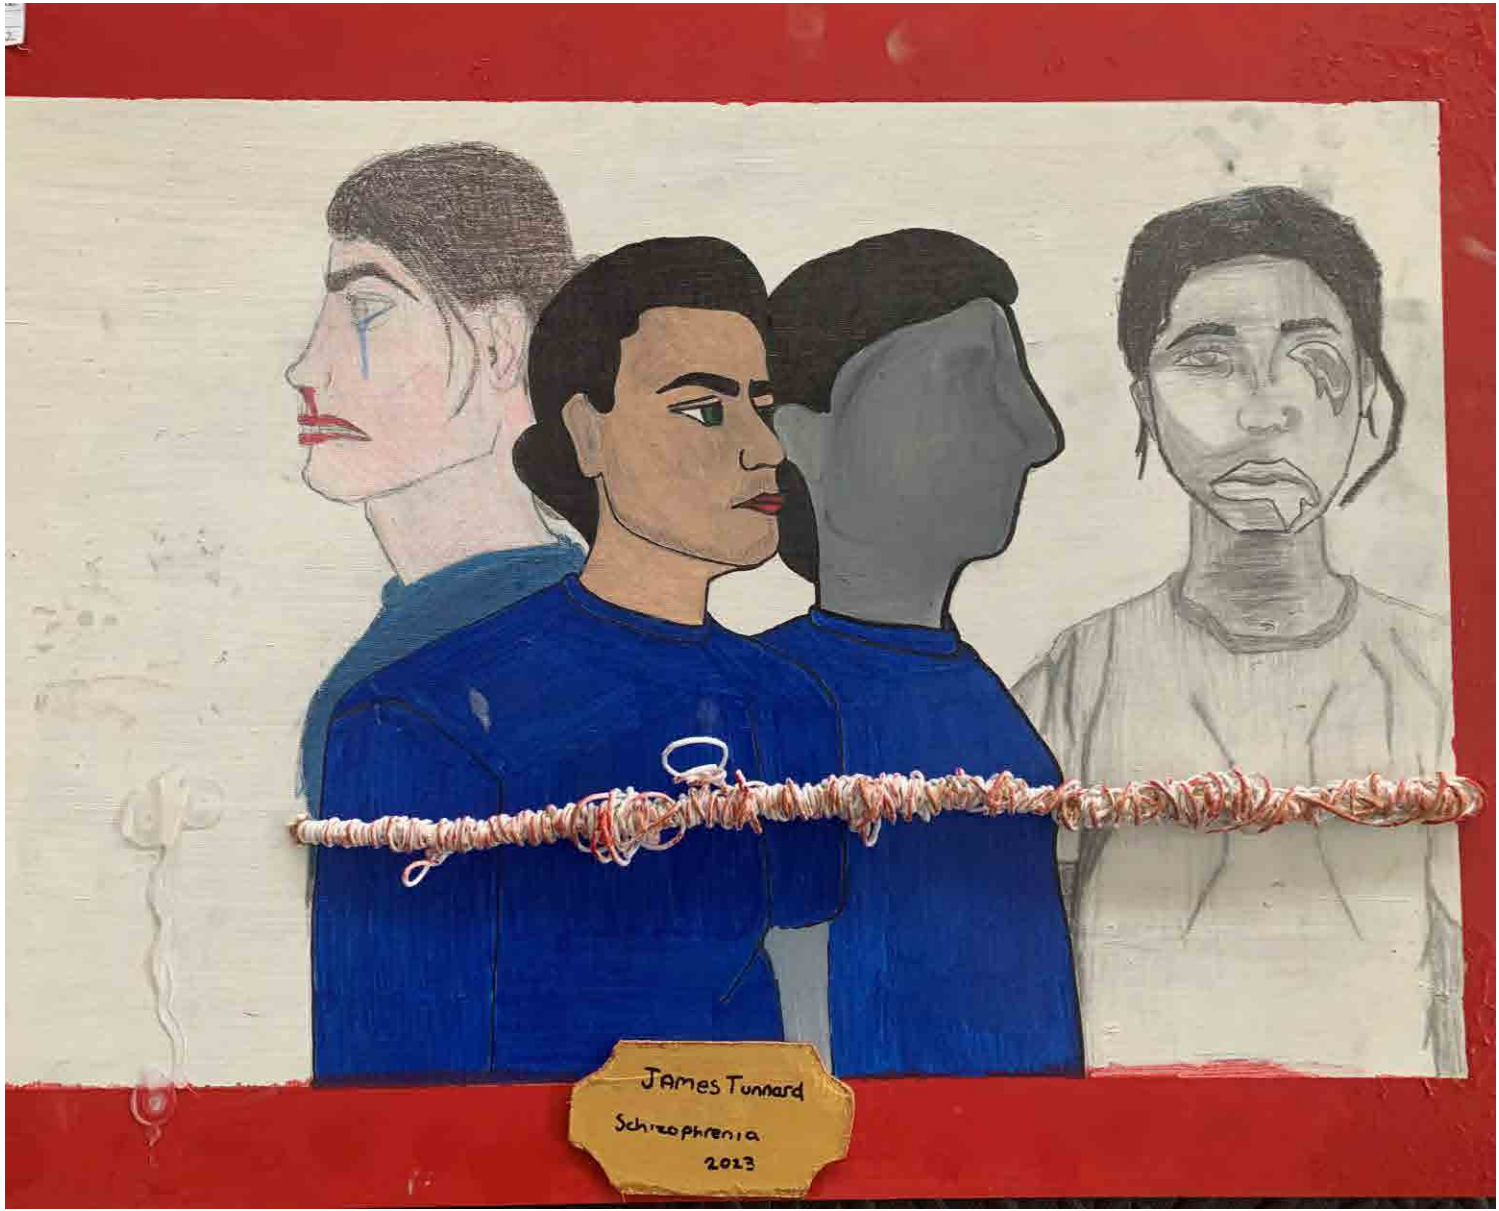

Many people who suffer with Schizophrenia help to cope by making artwork of their hallucinations to keep the world aware of the illness.

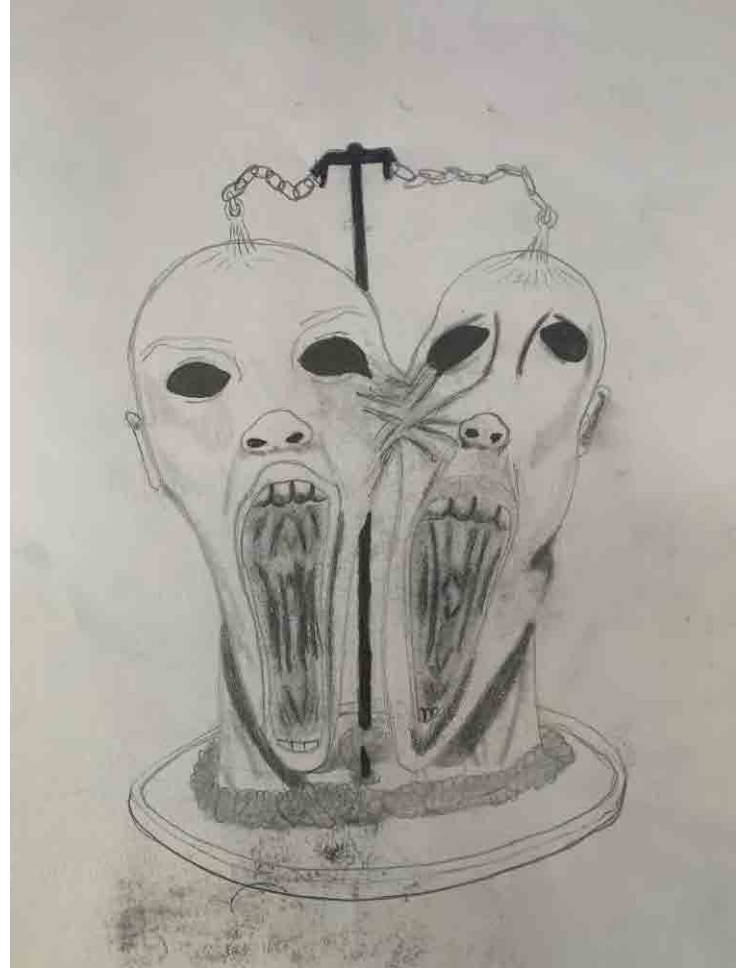

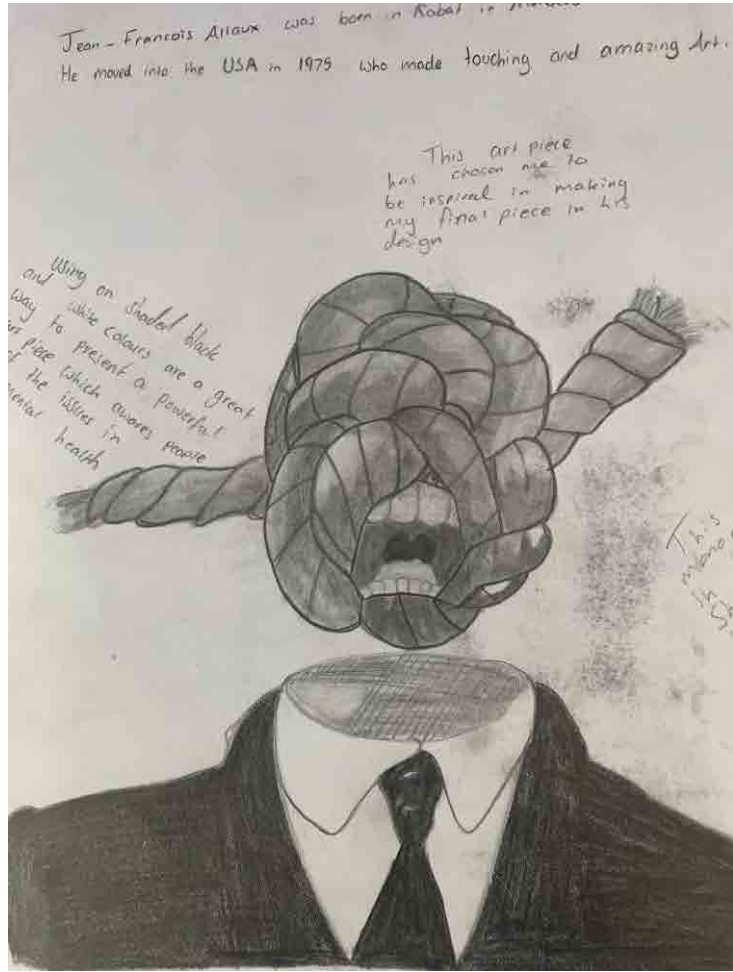

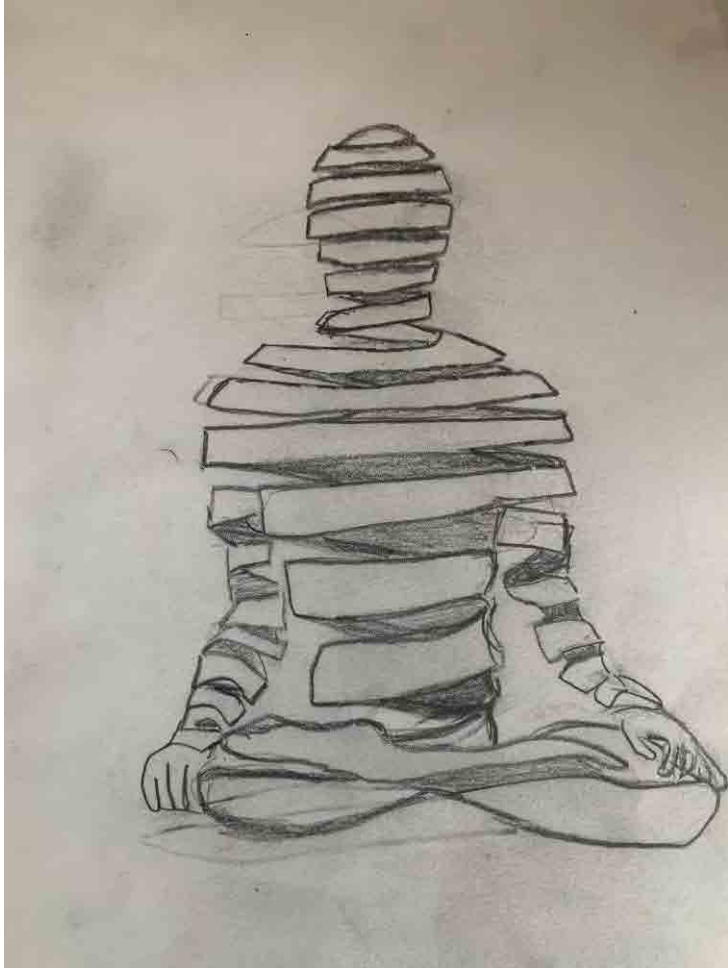

This art piece shows a clear view of schizophrenia from an unknown artist who only had her intentions to draw awareness (Source: Reddit)

This piece shows how one side is missing showing the horror experience of their illness and how people who suffer have bad experiences.

This art piece has inspired me to create a portrait of schizophrenia and the harm it can cause...

What our pupils had to say about GCSE Art Craft & Design 2022-23

'Art was very calm and helpful and the teachers showed great help to improve my skills and confidence'. Pupil JT

'I really enjoyed art because it was a chilled environment and both my teachers helped me learn and develop'.

Pupil ST

'I really enjoyed art I never done it before teachers are lovely and so encouraging, I will miss them'. Pupil BZ

'At Rivers ESC I've always enjoyed art as a subject Jen and Tracey are extremely supportive and always tended to my need, they have always taught me new and exciting ways to make my art better and it made my work even better'.

Pupil HG

From Tracey Hicks and Myself (Jenny Leo) we would like to thank everyone who took time to enjoy viewing our pupils hard work of 2022-23
Thank you 😊
